Investment Objective and Strategy

The Stock Index Fund is a stock fund that seeks to match, as closely as possible, before expenses, the performance of the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index (the "Index"), which emphasizes stocks of large U.S. companies.

The Stock Index Fund is a feeder fund, meaning that it invests all of its investable assets in a master portfolio. The fund invests its assets in the S&P 500 Index Master Portfolio, a separate series of an unaffiliated trust called the Master Investment Portfolio.

The Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index is a broad-based measure of U.S. stock market performance and includes 500 widely held common stocks. Indices are unmanaged, and investors cannot invest directly in an index. Unless otherwise noted, performance of indices does not account for any fees, commissions or other expenses that would be incurred. The index's returns include reinvested dividends.

Calendar Year Total Returns

The total returns shown above represent past performance, which does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate. An investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance data quoted. The fund's total returns include interest, capital gains, dividends and distributions.

Growth of $10,000

This line chart is a comparison of the change in value of a $10,000 investment in the fund and the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index.

Investing in mutual funds involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. Past performance does not guarantee future results.

Investors should carefully consider fund objectives, risks, charges and expenses before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information about the funds and should be read carefully before investing. To obtain a prospectus, call 800.258.3030 or visit homesteadfunds.com.

Equity securities generally have greater price volatility than fixed-income securities and are subject to issuer risk and market risk. The Stock Index Fund pursues its objective by investing substantially all of its assets in another pooled investment vehicle (a "master fund"). The ability of the Stock Index Fund to meet its investment objective is directly related to the ability of the master fund to meet its investment objective. Index funds may hold securities of companies that present risks that an investment advisor researching individual securities might otherwise seek to avoid and are subject to tracking error risk.

Industry Rankings (as of month ending September 30, 2021)

Morningstar

Category	Large Blend
Overall Morningstar Rating™	★★★

Overall, out of 1,257 funds, according to risk-adjusted return

Lipper

Classification	S&P 500 Index
Preservation ¹	5

¹Overall, out of 12,232 funds, according to historical loss avoidance

The Lipper Rating for Preservation is a fund that has demonstrates a superior ability to preserve capital in a variety of markets when compared with other funds in its asset class as of month ending 9/30/21. The ratings are subject to change every month and are based on an equal-weighted average of percentile ranks for the Preservation metrics over three-year, five-year, and 10-year periods (if applicable). The highest 20% of funds in each peer group are named Lipper Leader or a score of 5, the next 20% receive a score of 4, the middle 20% are scored 3, the next 20% are scored 2, and the lowest 20% are scored 1. Homestead Stock Index Fund, in Lipper's S&P 500 Index classification, received a rating of 5 for the five-year, 10-year and Overall periods, respectively (number of funds rated in parentheses). Preservation: Five-year (10,742 funds), 10-year (7,409 funds) and Overall (12,232 funds). Homestead Stock Index Fund, in Lipper's S&P 500 Index classification, received a rating of 4 for the Preservation three-year period (12,232 funds). Lipper ratings are not intended to predict future results, and Lipper does not guarantee the accuracy of this information. More information is available at lipperleaders.com.

Morningstar rated this fund, in Morningstar's large blend category, 3 stars for the Overall period out of 1,257 funds, 3 stars for the 10-year period out of 812 funds, 3 stars for the five-year period out of 1,102 funds and 3 stars for the three-year period out of 1,257 funds for performance month ending 9/30/21. The Morningstar Rating for funds, or "star rating," is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-ended funds and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-year, five-year, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods.
